“RECOMMEND YOUR BOOK” Service

Allama Iqbal Library is pleased to announce its new service, "Recommend Your Book," where research scholars and students can recommend books for the library. Your recommendations matter to us, and we appreciate your input in making our library a vibrant and enriching space for our users.

1. You can recommend books you think would be a great addition to our collection.
2. Provide all bibliographic details about the book/s on the prescribed format (copy enclosed) available on the Allama Iqbal Library website.
3. Get your books forwarded by the respective Head/Director/Coordinator and submit the same in the office of the Librarian.

*Note:

1. Research scholar can recommend up to 5 books and student up to 3 books annually.
2. The procurement of the books will be subject to the availability of the budget.
3. The books recommended should not be published by predatory and vanity publishers.

This service will help us shape the library collection according to your interests and preferences. It will also ensure that we develop relevant and appealing collection to fulfil the information needs of our diverse community of readers.
